Camp Colorado is a great place for vendors to showcase their business or service to affiliates all over Colorado and the surrounding states. From the set up through check out, Habitat Colorado makes this one of the best vendor experiences of the year.- Thank Em Promotions

As a first-time attendee of Camp Colorado, I was grateful for such a meaningful array of learning opportunities: it was a wonderful combination of a restorative retreat in a beautiful place and of being challenged to help advance the mission and message of Habitat in effective and innovative ways.
